SUVA

Delegates of the Fiji Institute of Accountants (FIA) Leaders Conference on October 14 will hear from an international coach and facilitator, Caryn Walsh.

Ms Walsh is an international keynote speaker, psychologist, leadership specialist, business consultant, facilitator, executive and life coach.

She runs the Australian-based Pure Magic International Business Solutions.

Ms Walsh is also a proud columnist of the Fiji Sun and her columns appear the first Saturday of every month.

The first theme she will be talking on is: "Buff 'em, Polish 'em, Shine 'em. Why Generation Y are like diamonds to your business".

And then she will later speak on: "Grabbing the Reins with Passion and Purpose - What it will take for young leaders to successfully guide businesses into the future".

Experience

Ms Walsh talks at conferences and forums and trains audiences of thousands all over Australia and internationally, in Africa and the South Pacific region, on an annual basis.

At the helm of Pure Magic International Business Solutions (Leadership, People and Organisational development specialists) Ms Walsh consults to all types of community, corporate, government and educational companies.

Ms Walsh has had an impressive career that's included almost three decades working as a psychologist in private practice and lecturing in psychology at two leading Australian Universities for a decade.

She consults to many organisations in Australia, Fiji and Africa on leadership, staff and organisational development and change management.

As an international coach and facilitator, her firm belief is that through exemplary leadership, collaboration and co-operation, we can create a more harmonious world!

Her audience members - now numbering in the tens of thousands - love the energy and inspiration she shows both as an international facilitator and conference speaker.

Working in Fiji

Ms Walsh has been working in Fiji for five years with prominent organisations such as the Reserve Bank of Fiji, Air Terminal Services (Fiji) Ltd, Westpac, Sofitel, USP and more recently, Rosies Holidays.

She was recently appointed as an External Consultant/Trainer for the Department of Executive Management and Hospitality Services for the Fiji National University.
